

WASHBOARDS

The Rosson House Museum in downtown Phoenix recently explained that in the 1880's over 7 million washboards were manufactured and sold in the United States. There were over 20 varieties of washing boards. During the same period there were 2,458 patents granted for the washing machine. Washing machines could process 600 shirts per days compared to 50 shirts per day on a washboard.